

NEW BOARD MEMBER PRESS RELEASE

We are happy to announce that Mr. James P. Martin (CEO of Global Talk Education Inc) has been appointed to the Board of Directors of Savannah Vision Tanzania in May 2023 as our new Director of Education. Prior to James Martin, the position was held by Marcky Ruben whose has since been appointed to Director of Programs/Projects.

While Mr. Martin will continue to work as CEO of Global Talk Education Inc., he will also lead our vision for future educational development.

He brings extensive experience within international education programs, provisions, training, management, and leadership.

Mr. Martin's rich experience in international education and business will help the growth of Savannah Vision Tanzania projects, making them known in Tanzania and on a global scale. His experience in education will be valuable for our existing and future programs and establishments, especially in education. He will lead/facilitate programs and funding for our education projects throughout Tanzania.
